ANOTHER GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. E. A. Hill called This Morning to Her Eternal Rest.

Mrs. E. A. Hill, after an illness of several weeks, died at 5:45 this morning.
Though not unexpected it was a great shock to her devoted family, most of whom were with her at the last moment.

Mrs. Hill, whose maiden name was Smith, was born on the site now owned by Judge Whitaker near this city, May 1st, 1825, and she was consequently in her 71st year.

In October 1849 she was married to the late Charles B. Hill, and this union was blessed by six children, of whom five survive—Mrs. Mary S. Hall of Cincinnati, Mrs. Nannie C. Wilson of Covington, Mrs. Mattie S. Lovel, Miss Sude C. Hill and Charles W. Hill of this city.

Mrs. Hill had been a member of the Baptist Church for more than fifty five years, and her whole life had been marked by deeds of goodness to those around and about her—a precious consolation to those who mourn her departure.

The funeral will take place from the residence, corner Front and Sutton streets, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with services by the Rev. W. O.
Cochrane of the Central Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South, her own denomination having no Minister here at present.

REAL LIVE NEWS.

But, Then, What Are the Newspapers For, Anyway?

Captain John H. Myers, late Conductor of the L. & N. but now enjoying the "ozone laden breezes" of the classic Licking, was in the city Saturday.

Numerous Kentucky newspapers had contained the statement that Mr. Myers had sued the railroad company for $12,000 damages, reciting the fact that about thirteen years ago Captain Myers was knocked from a flatcar at the Townsend bridge near Lair, falling fifty-four feet. He received injuries which almost proved fatal, and finally crippled him for life. He compromised his claim by accepting a Conductorship with the Kentucky Central, with the guarantee of a situation as long as he was able to discharge his duties. A short time ago Captain Myers lost his position on the L.
& N., and that he had now sued the company for damages on the contract, the L. & N. having absorbed the Kentucky Central.

With his usual desire for the latest news The Ledger scribe asked Captain Myers how his suit was progressing, and was rewarded with the information that no suit had been brought, and that the very first intimation he had of anything of the kind was what he had read in the enterprising newspapers!

The Captain, however, roushanded the information that the contract between himself and the railroad company had been drawn up by Attorney General Hendrick, and he had not been able to get a copy of it from that gentleman owing to the epidemic of politics.

All we have over said of the curative virtues of Ayer's Sarsaparilla sinks into insignificance when compared with the statements made by those who have been benefited by the use of this wonderful blood purifier. Many of the cures seem indeed almost incredible.

How to Vote!

There are a goodly number of loyal Republicans who will on Tuesday next cast their votes for Thomas B. Harrison, a Christian gentleman who is the Democratic candidate for Senator from Mason and Lewis counties, in preference to J. D.
Rummans the so-called Republican nominee.

That these voters may act intelligently, we give below the form of ballot that will accomplish their wishes.

Put the X right under the Log Cabin, and then run your eye down the Democratic ticket until you come to the name of Thomas B. Harrison, and PUT THE X IN THE SQUARE RIGHT AFTER Mr. HARRISON'S NAME, as every candidate on the Republican ticket except that of Mr. Rummans.

Beware!

Do not be deceived by any statement sent out on the eve of the election by J. D. Rummans, so-called Republican candidate for the Senate.

He has had ample time, and has been offered the free use of THE LEDGER's columns, to come out like a man and deny any charges made against him through or by this paper.

That he has refused to do so is a confession of the truth of all that has been said.

His unsupported denial at this late hour will fully show the insincerity of the man and the dishonesty of his methods.

nence who has thrown Rumporting T. B. Harrison, the KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited enjoyment of place, but we are in favor of the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for exchange, provided always that a dollar in coin is made practically as valuable as a dollar in the paper.
We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market for the producer; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.
We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence and relieve the people from the burden of taxation.
We believe that the only sound basis for preventing conspiracy in the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its devotion to the old state bank system and its old landmarks, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.
We favor an American policy which will protect American and American interests in any part of the world at all hazards and will symbolize with struggling laborers and sailors and other oppressed peoples.

MILTON JOHNSON did not seek the office of Representative. The office ought the man, and it is by such men the voters should stand, and they will.

The great county of Mason deserves a leader in the General Assembly—a man who can do something more than vote when the roll is called. Such a man is MILTON JOHNSON.

MILTON JOHNSON is not a representative of any clique or faction. He is pledged to support as policy or any one's pet hobby. He will not be found pawing fancy bills for which the overburdened taxpayers must always "pay the odder," but looking after the general and substantial interests of the county and state.

Rev. W. O. Cochran is confined to his room with a lame foot.
The football game between the Lexington Athletic Club and State College at Lexington resulted in a victory for the latter by the score of 24 to 0.
Miss Pearl Crouch, aged 19, and Nicholas Fletcher, aged 30, were arrested Saturday by Constable Willoughby near Paris, on a charge of being the murderers of Doc Allington, who was found Thursday in the orchard of W. O. Crouch, where he was killed by unknown parties. Miss Crouch was released on $1,000 bail, but Fletcher was released.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

SHOT FOUR TIMES.

A Killing at Cow Split Hollow, Near Richmond, Ky., Nov. 4.—At Cow Split Hollow, 15 miles from this place, Champ Mullins was shot four times and instantly killed Saturday night by John McNamee and the latter, with his brother as accessory, is now in jail here. The killing took place in a lonely spot in the woods. No other person than the three named were present and much mystery surrounds the affair. John McNamee gives the following account of the death of Mullins: He says that he had been drinking and was sitting down when Mullins attacked him with a knife. McNamee drew his pistol and fired five shots of them taking effect. McNamee then went to a neighbor's house and reported the killing. A knife was found in the hand of the murdered man which turned out to be the property of John McNamee. Will McNamee was suspected of complicity and was locked up also. When Mullins wife was informed of the killing she remarked that it was no more than she expected.

STRONG SUSPICION.

That Young Crouch Had Some Connection With the Killing Murderer.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4.—Later developments in the Ellington murder case tend to throw a strong suspicion upon a five-year-old son of Crouch as the perpetrator of the deed. Several hours before the body of Ellington was discovered young Crouch was seen in the vicinity with a shotgun on his shoulder. When the body was found and the news circulated throughout the community young Crouch suddenly disappeared and can not be located.
In Ellington's pocket were found several letters of a loving character from his mother and in one she entreated him to be careful about his conduct in the house, as he might meet with her brother.

which Hall was shot in the head and badly beaten. He may recover.
John M. Harvey was fatally shot in have been the cause of the riot. The officers have not been able as yet to capture any of the men.

ored.

CLARKE WINS.

On Assurance That Fitzsimmons Will Leave the State,

The Legal Proceedings Against Him Have Been Dropped.

The Injection Issued Against Him on Friday, However, And a Similar Motion Was Made and Granted as to Corbett and Brady.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 4.—At 10:15

a. m. Saturday a conference was begun in Gov. Clarke's office at which Brady, Julian, Attorney General Kinworthy and Col. Murphy, representing the publisters, were present. It was held behind closed doors and the members of the press were excluded. Before going into the conference, Attorney General Kinworthy said to the United Press representative: "I can not, of course, speak positively, but I think you may safely say that all this trouble will be over and the pugilists will be out of town within twenty-four hours. Excepting will have to be done in accordance with legal forms of course, and hence there is a possible delay but I do not believe there will be any."
Col. Murphy assented to the general's statement: "We are convinced," said he, "that there is no hope of securing the liberty of these men within a reasonable time, through a legal struggle, and the prospect of a fight is almost nothing. Therefore we shall take the easiest way out of the mess.
The men will leave the state and the authorities will let the legal proceedings drop. That will be the end of the matter."

GOV. JAMES P. CLARKE.

Gen. Geo. P. Taylor, commander of the state militia, is the authority for the statement that Gov. Clarke will not allow the state to be used as a arena for pugilists. The governor says he has no desire to see the men presented and if they will get out of the state he will be glad to see them go, so that he can devote his energies to certain residents and officials of Hot Springs with whom he is not yet done with many annoyances.

Saturday morning were Dan Stuart and Joe Vondig, the ex-promoters of the fight. They have apparently gone out of the business of fostering pugilists and met with a rather frosty reception from the sporting contingent who are disposed to blame them for the fracas which climaxed Saturday.

Of the hundreds of visitors from abroad brought here by expectations of the championship fight, less than a score remain and these, like Parson Davies, John L. Sullivan and Paddy Ryan, are merely rising up for a day or two before returning to the north.
Before leaving Saturday morning Dan Stuart presented the gloves which were to have been worn by Corbett and Fitzsimmons to Val Hoffman, the Chicago brewer, in recognition of the latter's liberality last week in offering a $1000 prize for the man to fight for in prize.

At noon Saturday Assistant Attorney General Hearnaday appeared in the circuit court and stated that the state had received assurance of the defendants, Fitzsimmons and Julian, would abstain from any unlawful undertaking in the state. They had also agreed to leave the state.

Upon that assurance the state was willing to dismiss the peace warrant case with the understanding that if the defendants violated their pledge the case should be reinstated.

Mr. South, for the governor, said this was satisfactory. The court said that the desired order would be answered and the cases were accordingly dismissed.

o'clock. It is understood he will get his baggage together and leave for the east within a short time. The Fitzsimmons party will stay at Little Rock and give a show Monday night. There is still some talk of a fight at El Paso, but little stock is taken in it.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 4.—Sunday a dispatch from Little Rock stated that Stuart was sending out a batch of dispatches, but would not talk. This was shown to Brady who said: "We will positively pay no more attention to Fitzsimmons. We are through with him forever. It is useless to make Corbett any friends in connection with him."

A Long Chase.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 3.—Sheriff Patterson, of Woodruff county, Arkansas, passed through here Sunday with J. M. Leslie, alias Ryan, alias Lewis, whom he arrested at Oshtemo, Miss.
Saturday. His chase of the man extended over 2,300 miles, but then the prizes warranted the persistent persult. Leslie is wanted for two bigamous marriages and certain known forgeries, with a line of the latter prizes, the length of which is not known.

valuable link between you and the Public Ledger—did it ever strike you that you can send the paper

HOLMES GOES TO

He is Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

The Jury Required But One Ballot to Reach That Conclusion.

The Prisoner Had Dressed and Headed White the Jury Was Being Packed in the Courtroom.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 4.—Herman W. Mudgett, or, as he is better known, H. H. Holmes, was Saturday night convicted of murder in the first degree for killing Benj. F. Pitzel in this city on September 9, 1904. The jury needed but one ballot to reach this decision.

The jury retired at 5:45 o'clock, at the conclusion of Judge Arnold's charge. After the retirement of the jury from the court room the spectators streamed out into the corridors and eagerly discussed what the verdict would probably be. At 8:45 word was sent to Judge Arnold that the jury was ready to render the verdict.

The prisoner was brought in and placed in the dock. He was as impassive as ever as he took his seat. The court ordered Holmes to arise, and then, in reply to the question of the court, the foreman of the jury pronounced the words "Guilty of murder in the first degree."

The verdict was greeted with absolute silence. The charge of the judge must have foreshadowed what his fate would be, but the word guilty felt from Holmes with a quivering force. He made no outcry or exhibition of emotion of any kind—the blow was too stunning for noisy outbreak.

He sat down, and when the jury was polled each man answered to his name, and as each pronounced his sentence, Holmes stared vacantly before him.

His face was that of a corpse. It was as absolutely expressionless as a mask. Only a nervous twitching of the eyelids and the contraction and dilation of the eyes showed that there was a living breathing man that sat in the dock. As the effect of the shock began to subside, Holmes began to recover himself. He realized that his attorney was making a motion for a new trial.

The judge said he would hear the motion for a new trial on Monday, November 18, and an expression something like hope broke across his face. Turning to the court official he said in an eager whisper: "Monday, November 18?"

"These were the only words he uttered," Judge Arnold then expressed to Mr. Rotan and Mr. Shoemaker his appreciation of how difficult their task had been. He complimented them that they had been able to make a record showing for the defense as they did. He intimated that their withdrawal from the case would be to the prisoner. Judge Arnold then ordered the prisoner removed.

Everyone actively identified with the trial was in the conviction of Holmes for the murder of Pitzel, was glad when Sunday came, and took advantage to rest and to get Sunday papers. There was no nervous tension under which they had labored for a week. District Attorney Graham said Sunday, as to the granting of a new trial, he did not think the court after having heard the argument would do so, as there was nothing upon the records of the trial that would show the jury sufficient to warrant such a proceeding.

After the ordeal of the trial the quiet monotony of a prison cell was welcome to Holmes and his counsel. Sunday appeared unoccupied by the trial, and the sentence which hangs over him. He is still in the married department but he has moved over to the single wing Monday. The condemned man's appetite takes but little of his attention. He still maintains his air of injured innocence and reads the papers which he absorbed in thought. No visitors were allowed to see him Sunday, and Holmes himself strengthened the prison rule by stating that he did not wish to see anyone.

Jessie Pitzel is still in Philadelphia, in charge of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children. Mrs. Pitzel has left the city and nearly all of the commonwealth witnesses have taken their departure.

TRAIN ROBBERY.
A Conductor Shot to Square Up as Old Score by One of the Gang.

Easton, Pa., Nov. 4.—Conductor Richard Barnett, of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, was very dangerously shot by a gang of train robbers Sunday night. Barnett was approaching Erie from Buffalo with his train and had his head out of the window watching for signals. Three men rushed upon the train and fired at him. The only man shot. The ball tore through his skull, but came out. Barnett has been a conductor a great many years, and it is believed that he was intended to square up an old score by one of the gang which has been recently discharged from custody for train robbery.

RAILWAY WRECK.
Two People Killed and Twenty-five or Thirty Injured Near Wheeling, W. Va.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 4.—Twenty persons were killed outright and twenty-five or thirty passengers were injured by the wrecking the Cincinnati express at Elm Grove, near Wheeling, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at 10:30 Sunday morning. The dead are: Mrs. Irene, not yet fully identified. Child, named Barclay, parents live in Wheeling.

The accident was caused by the breaking of a flange on the combination car, which caused the derailment of that car together with two coaches and a parlor car. The cars derailed turned completely over and were badly demolished. As soon as possible after the accident a relief train was sent from Baltimore to the scene of the wreck. The injured passengers were taken to the hospital. The accident seems to be one of those kind that is wholly unaccountable. Great excitement was kindled in the vicinity for a time after the accident. But no more fatalities occurred seems to be due to a kind of prophecy. The wrecking of the Cincinnati was the worst of its kind that has occurred in this vicinity for many years.

OUR NAVY

Adm. Ramsay Collects Some Interesting Figures.

The Speed and Coal Consumed by Some of the Navy Warships.

The Minneapolis Is Rated as the Fastest Warship Afloat—If Pushed she can make 19.75 knots. The Baltimore is rated at 18.66 knots.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Adm. Ramsay has collected some exceedingly interesting figures on the ordinary cruising performances of the new warships which will be sent to congress by Secretary Herbert in his annual report, and which may lead to some decision when appropriations are asked for new vessels of high speed. During the past year the admiral has required all commanding officers to report to him the rate of speed and the coal consumed on every voyage made and the results demonstrate wonderful bursts of speed which are productive of large premiums when skilled lookers are employed by builders on trial trips to establish great records are altogether meaningless as indicating the value of such vessels for every day naval uses. The new figures do not in any manner detract from the capabilities of the racing cruisers to develop great rates of speed for short distances when emergencies occur that warrant the risk of forcing and straining the machinery and hulls, as, for instance, when $5,000 a year is at stake or an enemy is to be intercepted or avoided. But the statistics collected show that the figures customarily attached to such ships even in official publications are entirely misleading. The cruiser New York, for instance, is rated in all official publications as a 21-knot ship. From August, 1895, to October, 1895, the best run she made was at the rate of 15 knots per hour, which was from New York to Philadelphia in 106 knots, at the close of the canal celebration, burning 137 tons of coal. From Philadelphia to New York she made 14 knots, burning 100 tons of coal, for 2,089 knots, but her average for the year was about ten knots.

The Columbia, rated officially at 28 knots from New York to Southampton, made 15 knots and burned 1,320 tons of coal for 3,315 knots. When turning under orders to make a record she accomplished 14 knots, burning 1,533 tons of coal for 3,112 knots. The Minneapolis is generally, and no doubt correctly, believed to be the fastest warship afloat. If pushed she is rated at 25.75 knots, having averaged that for four hours between Cape May and Norfolk. Her best run in the past year was 11.3 knots, on a run from Norfolk to New York.

The Baltimore rated at 19.75 knots, the fastest of the China station, previous to the new ones, had a record of 19 knots in the recent Oriental expedition, yet her highest recorded speed was 12.7 knots when she burned 111 tons of coal going 312 knots.

In the opinion of naval experts she was doing almost her best, but she developed less than 13 knots. The Chicago was out in good condition last year, and has now been laid up for two years' repairs. Her record is 15.16 knots, and the best she did was 7.7 knots.

The Philadelphia, with her record of 10.75 knots, attained a maximum of 10.2 knots, while the Newark accomplished 10.7 knots. The latter was out in the year's record for distance run was held by the New York with 17.61 knots for her credit. The Columbia being next with 15.49 knots, followed by the Detroit, 14.49; Machias, 14.40; Marblehead, 13.79; Cincinnati, 13.70; and the Concord, 13.70.

The new cruise commission bears the distinction of not having moved during the year, the Monterey, having been tied up to the land in Tien Tsin since September 9, 1894.

Half a Dozen Injured in a Riot.
NEW CASTLE, Pa., Nov. 4.—A riot occurred at Ellwood City about midnight Saturday night and at least a half dozen men were injured. The riot was caused by the men engaged in the glass works and those in the tin plate mill at that place have been on the out, and many men from the tin plate mill and glass works who had been engaged in the riot Saturday night, which wound up in a free for all engagement between the two factories. At one time there were 100 men in the tin plate mill engaged in the melee. The fight continued from 11 o'clock until midnight, and several persons were very badly used up. Several arrests will be made.

HINDS, S. D., Nov. 4.—News was received here that the St. Stephen mission, on the Crow Creek reservation, twenty-five miles from Hingham, was totally destroyed by fire. The mission was destroyed by fire. The mission was destroyed by fire.

BEAUCHAMPE, Nov. 4.—Valentine Shortle was Sunday found guilty of willful murder for the killing of John Lee, payable to the estate of the late John Lee at Valley Field on March 1 last. Robbery was no doubt the motive for the crime.

As Assassins Lying in Wait.
MEMPHIS, Nov. 4.—A special from Little Rock Sunday says reliable information exists that a man named Albert England was lynched at Vilonia, Ark., Saturday night, but no particulars.

Shot and Killed.
